Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Art Unit: 3751

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1 and 7-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Claim 1 calls for the insertion rinsing tube to be "held in a bore in the housing by means of a seal", while this language is found on page 4, line 23, it is not explained how the seal can hold the tube. Claim 13 fails to find support in the disclosure as the only recitation of this degree range is found for angle beta. Clarification is required.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 7-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 line 7, "the outlet" lacks antecedent basis or are inferential, as is "the inlet" of claim 8, line 1. Further, how can the "inlet side" of tube 1 be "inclined" with respect to the "outlet side of the housing" when they join and are coincident? Claim 11 calls for an angle of 120-150 between the ends of the insertion tube. How can this be as the drawing depicts about 90 degrees?

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,7,10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102b as being anticipated by DE 29800816(Schramm).

The hand grip is seen at 14, valve at 16, housing closure at the end of 14 where the insertion tube 20 is attached. As the angle of 24 is inclined with respect to the vertical i.e.the angle enclosed by an extension of the axis of 24 and the axis extending horizontally from the inlet (near 10) of housing 14, the angle of intersection of the two axes would be less than 90 degrees. It is axiomatic that 20 would cooperate with 14 in a sealed manner, that is no water leakage would be expected here; therefore, the term “sealably and exchangeably held” is deemed met here. Claim 7 is met here in that the tube 18,20,22 is “angled”. Claim 10 is met here by the angle enclosed by 18 appearing less than 180 degrees.

Claims 2-6 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/7/06.
